SPRING 2018 NEWSLETTER

SADDLEBACK FARM SHOP

Happy New Year and we hope you had a wonderful Christmas and New Year?

We've had a busy Christmas here at Saddleback; we hope you enjoyed the Walters turkey tastings with us, maybe you had one for your dinner on Christmas Day?

Thank you for your continued support, and if you are new to us then we look forward to seeing you again soon.

With spring approaching the farm is getting busy now with calving. We are all looking forward to some (hopefully) warmer and brighter weather.

As normality resumes and the routines settle in to place, we are excited and keen to share our plans for the coming year.

We are delighted to be launching some monthly events including some evenings. So get the dates in your diary and bring your friends and family along.

These events will be here at Saddleback, we can't wait to welcome you all!

DON'T FORGET THOSE IMPORTANT DATES THROUGHOUT THE YEAR THAT A VISIT TO SADDLEBACK WOULD COMPLETE!

Shrove Tuesday • 13th February: find breakfast pancakes and savoury lunchtime pancakes on our specials board.

Valentines Day • 14th February: Why not treat your loved one to a 'cook at home' three course meal?

Fresh, local produce prepared for you to cook up a storm following our tried and tested recipes.

Cook together or impress your guest with all the trouble of weighing and preparation done for you!

Mothers Day • 11th March: Open 10-4 as usual, why not treat your mum to a delicious breakfast or an indulgent sparkling saddleback afternoon tea after taking in a local walk - print outs are available from our team.

Pre booking is advisable and don't forget service closes at 3.30pm on Sunday.

St Patricks Day • 17th March: Getting in the Irish spirit, we will be serving a warming Irish stew in the tea room using our own homebred lamb.

Good Friday • 30th March: Look out for some delicious fish specials on our black board.

Easter Weekend • 30th March - 2nd April: A delightful range of activities for the children including Face painting and Easter eggs hunts whilst the adults can relax with a coffee and cheeky slice of Easter chocolate cake!

Don't forget we close on Easter Sunday. Easter Monday bank holiday opening hours of 10am-4pm.

St Georges day • 23rd April: Celebrating all things quintessentially English on St Georges day, take a browse around our shop to find the best of British and local produce. Why not grab a bite to eat in our tearoom - look out for some delicious specials and not forgetting our butchery - we will be offering beef wellingtons to pre order from our butchery at a special price to celebrate st Georges day!

THE BUTCHERY

As the season comes to a close for pheasant and partridge, we will see a lot more venison coming into the butchery as we can stalk without creating the disturbance to the birds.

Our own lamb is especially delicious right now and in season, be sure to visit the butchers counter on your next visit!

We also have dishes available on the specials board to give you some inspiration for home cooking.

As you look forward to spring and Easter, please have a think about placing orders for any Easter lamb that you may require. We will then ensure we have plenty of stock available should you decide to try some of our own lamb.

Please also remember that we run our meat boxes all year round, it's a great way to take the hassle out of the weekly or monthly meat shop, head over to our website and check out our extensive range of meat boxes, you can even have them delivered direct to your door!
